

EMELDER M. TAGUTANAZVO

• Institutions and Gender Expert •

ABOUT ME

I am a self-motivated and qualified professional who has vast hands-on working experience as a Consultant and Lecturer.

- Languages: English and Shona
- Computer Literacy: MS Word, PowerPoint & Excel
- Drivers License
- Valid Zimbabwean Passport

QUALIFICATIONS

- DPil in Water Institutions
- Master of Science degree in Social Ecology
- Bsc Honors degree in Psychology

WORKING EXPERIENCE

Employer: Meticulous Consult (Current)

Position: Assistant Research Consultant

Duties:

- Managing and processing gender-related data on Covid-19 household dynamics

Employer: The University of Zimbabwe, Centre for Applied Social Sciences (2017 - 2019)

Position: Part-time Lecturer

Duties:

- Teaching Institutions of natural resources; Conflict management in water resources management

Employer: Waternet (2016)

Position: Gender Mainstreaming Consultant

Duties:

- Training water managers on gender mainstreaming in institutions of water resources management

Employer: International Water Management Institute (2014 - 2015)

Position: Gender and Water Resources Management Institutions consultant

Duties:

- Outreach activities on irrigation scheme management; Developing and testing gender and social assessment tools; Developing transboundary basin plan frameworks, Assessing transboundary river basin plans

SKILLS

Communication

Management

Coordination

Team-player

Problem-solving

Ethical

0775149940 • • temelder@gmail.com

Publications

- Emelder Tagutanazvo, Vupenyu T. Dzingirai, Everisto Mapedza and Barbara Van Koppen (2015). Gender Dynamics in Water Governance Institutions: The case of Gwanda's Guyu-Chelesa Irrigation Scheme in Zimbabwe, WH2O Journal 4 (1): 55-64.
- Kazbekov, J., Tagutanazvo, E. and Lautze, J., (2016). A Global Assessment of Basin Plans: Definitions, Lessons, Recommendations. Water Policy, 18 (2): 368-386.
- Everisto Mapedza, Emelder Tagutanazvo and Barbara Van Koppen (2017). Gender Representation and Collective Action in Institutions of Water Resources Management in Matrilineal Societies of Malawi.
- Emelder Tagutanazvo, Vupenyu Dzungirai and Everisto Mapedza (2019). Women's Participation in Water Resources Management Institutions in Zimbabwe: The Case of Guyu-Chelesa Irrigation scheme, ZAMBEZIA.
- Emelder Tagutanazvo , Vupenyu Dzingirai and Kefasi Nyikahadzoi (2018). The Nature of Gender Representation in Water Resources Management Institutions: The case of Guyu-Chelesa Irrigation Scheme, Gwanda, Zimbabwe, ZAMBEZIA.
- Tagutanazvo E. and Bowora J. (2019) Institutions and Sustainability of Community Borehole Water Supplies in Chiredzi Rural District, Zimbabwe, WH2O.

Referees:

- Dr M. Machisa Researcher Meticulous consult Cell: 0027 737190305 meticulousconsult@gmail.com
- Reference Prof. B. Mukamuri University of Zimbabwe CASS Cell: 00263772 112 774 (bmukamuri@sociol.uz.ac)
- Dr K. Kujinga (Waternet programmes manager) University of Zimbabwe Cell: 00263772266137 (krasposy@gmail.com)
- Dr E. Mapedza (Researcher) IWMI Research Institute (e.mapedza@cgiar.org)